"STARDUST", a three-act comedy was presented this year by the Senior Class. In the play, the students of the Academy of Dramatic and Allied Arts are excited because the famed actress, Prudence Mason, is to appear with them. The director, Mr. Bach, has instilled in them the idea that nothing is important but art; therefore, when Phil asks Janet to marry him, she refuses to give up her aesthetic career.

When the famous actress arrives at the madhouse, all are dismayed to find that she is a normal, hard-working girl. She also has a personal problem like that of Janet and Phil. As the two couples solve their problems, the actress teaches the students the valuable lesson that there is no substitute for hard work and good sense.

Homecoming 1969

The Sophomore float, "The Spirit of 72", won first place in the Homecoming Parade.

Leah, escorted by Freddie Sutherland, is crowned by football captain, David Reid.

Lebanon's annual Homecoming pageantry began weeks before the actual event with hard work on floats and patient planning.

At a big bonfire on Thursday night, the kids shouted and cheered as they burned a "Blue Devil" in effigy. When the big day rolled around on October 10, a gala Homecoming was set. The night's festivities began with a parade of floats, cheerleaders, the Pioneer Band, and the Homecoming Court. After the parade, the Pioneers met their arch rivals from Castlewood on the gridiron. A happy "Big Red" team hustled to the locker room at half-time while the coronation took place on field. Applause filled the air as Leah Bolling was crowned our '69 Queen.

The week ended with a dance on Saturday night, sponsored by the Junior Class. Thus, another memory was made.

With the air of winter around them, the Pioneers began their '69-70 basketball season. Spear-heading this year's team were 6' 4" center, Butch Tritt, and 6' 1" forward, Jan Wright. The poise and confidence of the team increased with every basket. The Pioneers were becoming strong contenders for tournament action, ending their season with a 9-9 record, but were denied county and district crowns.

While our track team's year was not marked with many victories, it was reinforced by the participation of many of Lebanon High's finest athletes. This year, the team established itself as a fine competitor.

Dedication

Mrs. Doris Bundy

In grateful appreciation for her guidance and instruction, we dedicate the 1970 PIONEER to Mrs. Doris Bundy.

Mr. Frank W. Horton, Principal

Faculty and Administration

"Scratch the green rind of a sapling, or wantonly twist it in the soil, and a scarred or crooked oak will tell of the act for centuries to come. So it is with the teachings of youth, which make impressions on the mind and heart that are to last forever."

And one day close to the end of my journey,

I looked back and recalled the moments that made the time go so fast.

“I saw the reflections of the school I love despite the cruel words I uttered while there.”

Now, memories fill the empty halls and rooms.

Baccalaureate . . . the last week began

While waiting anxiously for Baccalaureate to begin, Seniors chatted and adjusted caps and gowns.

The audience rose as the Senior Class marched to their place at the front of the auditorium.

Rev. Milton P. Reid began the service with a prayer that the graduating class find God's will for their lives.

A special high school chorus, led by Mr. Roger Glover, gave a beautiful rendition of "Now Is The Hour".

In the scripture and prayer offered by Rev. Beecher Dunsmore, Seniors were urged to have faith when facing life's obstacles.

with a solemn service and words of inspiration.

Baccalaureate, the farewell sermon, was delivered to the Class of 1970, their parents and friends, on Sunday night, May 31, in the high school auditorium.

Mr. Frank Horton introduced our guest speaker, Dr. Tuck.

Guest speaker was the Reverend Dr. William Tuck, Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Bristol, Virginia.

Graduating with the class's highest scholastic honors were: Glen Durrett, Linda Cassell, Eugene Mercer, Deborah Ramey, Jean Jackson, David Reid, Francine Easterly, Salutatorian, Vickie Penick, Johnny Vencill, and Gwen Kiser, Valedictorian.

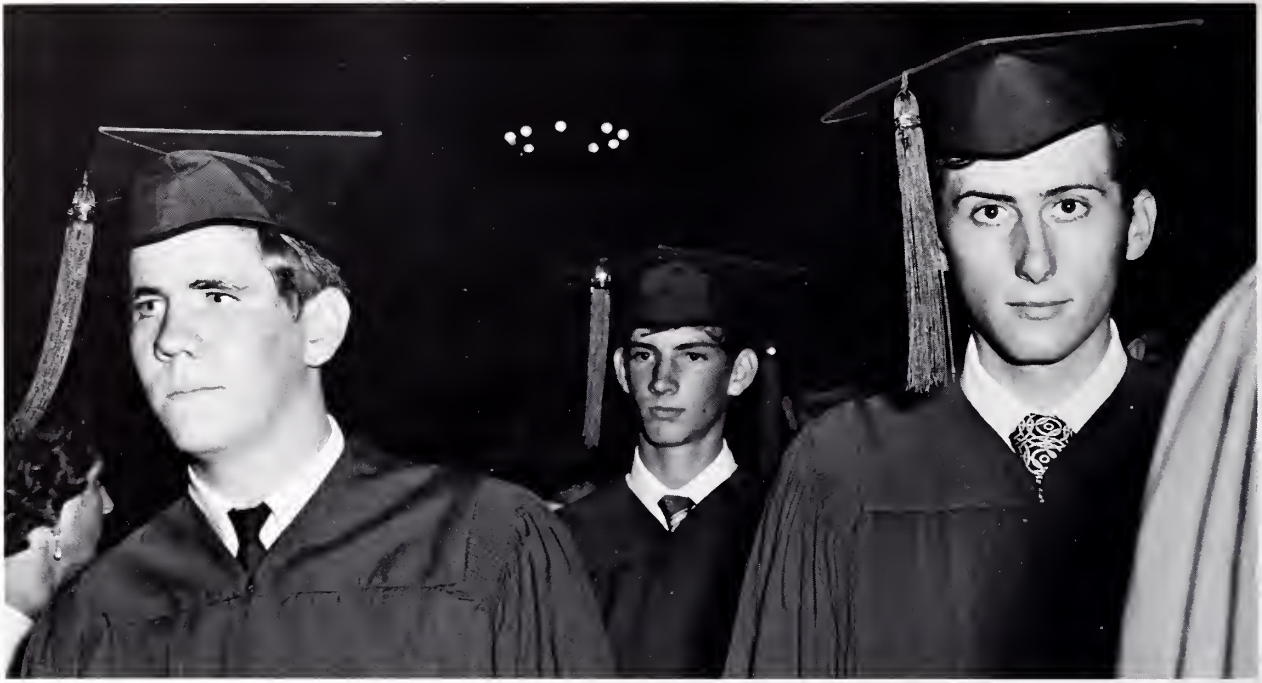

Seniors listened with sincere interest.

Dr. Tuck emphasized the importance of making the right decisions and having the courage to stand by them.

Graduation . . . It was over so quickly.

It was a solemn occasion as the Class of 70 marched into the auditorium for their final program at L.H.S.

As Joan Cox sang, "The Impossible Dream," the thoughts of the Seniors turned to their own "unreachable stars."

Clyde Lester opened the Graduation ceremony with a prayer, thanking God for his many blessings during the past twelve years.

I am leaving . . .

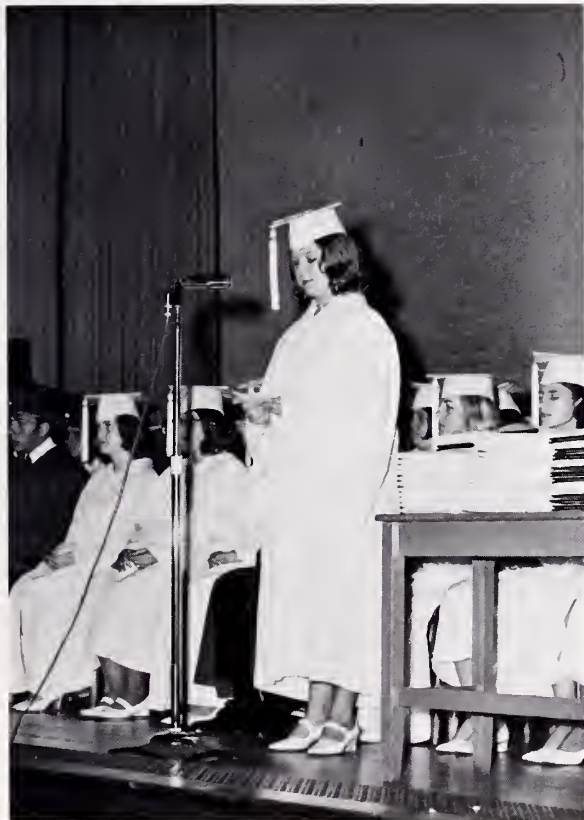

Valedictorian, Gwen Kiser, in her speech, "Face of America", presented her idea that sacrifice is needed to regain the American image.

Commencement was held on Friday, June 5, in the school auditorium. For parents and friends, it was a time of pride and perhaps a little sadness. For the graduating Seniors, it was a moment of reality, crowding the memories of twelve years into such a short time, and realizing that it was really the end.

The theme, "America Tomorrow", was strongly explored in Linda Cassell's address, "Values to Cherish."

Patricia McFadden emphasized the need for "Enlightened Leadership."

Salutarian, Francine Easterly, offered her thoughts on facing life's joys and sorrows with equal grace in her speech, "Agony and Ecstasy of Life."

But not forgetting to take with me a part of those days . . .

Susan Smith delivered her speech, "Age of Reason," dealing with the necessity of allowing reason rather than violence settle disputes.

"Believe in the Future" was the topic of Gwen Dale's address which advised all to put hope and faith into the future.

In his speech, "Peace with Freedom," Bill Alexander expressed his belief that free people should never accept peace at the price of their liberty.

Diplomas were eagerly received, signifying the conclusion of our public education but only the beginning of our adult life.

Mr. Omer Elkins, Director of Instruction for Russell County, awarded diplomas to the 1970 graduates.

With a certain amount of joy, sorrow, and a great deal of pride, Seniors accepted their diplomas.

My days at Lebanon High.

Class President, Eugene Mercer, delivered the traditional School Seal Speech.

"With this, we reluctantly make the Junior Class the Senior Class of Lebanon High School, with all its responsibilities and honors."

Officers of the Class of 1971 respectfully led the graduates from the auditorium.

It was over. The shouts of joy, and the tears of sadness rang in the air, but many left wondering, "Where do I go from here?"

ALMA MATER

It's Lebanon High School, it's Lebanon High School,
The pride of every pioneer.
Come on you old lads, come on you new lads,
It's Lebanon High School now we cheer! Rah! Rah!
Now is the time boys, to make a big noise,
No matter what the people say.
For there is none to fear, the gang's all here,
So, hail to Lebanon High School Hail! Rah! Rah!

Remember to remember . . .

It's hard to believe that the 1969–70 school year has come to a close, the last pictures have been identified, and the last pages stamped. In the words of Bob Dylan, "The line it is drawn, the curse it is cast; the slow one now will later be fast, as the present now will later be past." The lingering moments of our store have now become the past. They were days of change. We sought and we found. We became a part and we grew. Every day was an episode in an all-too-soon ending story, a story in which all of us were the main characters. Through others we found ourselves. We discovered ambitions, made dreams, and overcame obstacles. It is my hope that the 1970 PIONEER will present an accurate account of YOUR YEAR, and that you will review these memories with as much pleasure as I have found in recording them.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to the staff members who contributed their time and effort to collect these happenings and who made my task so enjoyable.

I extend a special thanks to others who have made the 1970 PIONEER possible:

Our sponsors, Miss Nell Howard and Mrs. Doris Bundy;

Mr. Frank W. Horton, our principal;

Mr. Phillippi, the Delmar photographer;

The businesses who supported us with advertisements,

And you, the students, for without you there would have been no story.

Finally, to the Class of 1970.

"I do not wish you joy without a sorrow,

Nor endless day without the healing dark,

Nor brilliant sun without the restful shadow,

Nor tides that never turn against your bark.

I wish you love, and strength, and faith, and wisdom,

Goods, gold enough to help some needy one,

I wish you songs, but also blessed silence,

And God's sweet peace when every day is done." —D.N.M.

Sincerely,
